INDIVIDUAL REPORTS

Nat: SU Nominations are this week.

Christian: Stash has arrived!

Mary: I didn't have a college officer meeting this week, but remember to come to the JCO meeting.

Jack: Make sure to tell people about the JCR meeting.

TREVS DAY

Saška: Discusses general plans for Trevs Day I'm currently waiting for shirts to arrive and will need help selling. Would anyone be able to help me food shopping? to drive me food shopping.

SABB PRES REFERENDUM

Jack: This Friday I will send out an email asking people (who want to campaign) to email me. Hopefully someone will apply for 'no'. The campaign period opens Tuesday and runs for a week, voting opens on the following Wednesday, closing after 4 days on Sunday. I might make a channel for this.

Mary: Just make sure people know what to do, how to sign up and what they're supposed to do etc. We need to emphasise the financial part.

PUBLICITY POLICY

Christian: I've had some discussions with some freshers and we need to perhaps provide more information in email as not everyone is on Facebook.

Mary: The first thing I suggest to freshers is to get Facebook though, because its simply where most of the information is shared.

Christian: People do reserve the right to not be on Facebook if they choose.

Daniel: Engagement with emails are exceptionally low anyway, but I'm happy to ask around for more information.

Action point: Daniel to ask the Tier 2 Facebook group for publicity requests (and continue asking on Slack).

MUSIC REP

Christian: I spoke to Tom Webb (current Music Rep) about this (about wether we keep the job as a tier 2, make a tier 1, or split it). He thought best not to split, but keep as a tier 2. He'll get back to us about this after Live on The Hill though! It might just benefit from making people more aware that it's an intensive role.

Becki: I would be interested if there was a second role though.

Christian: We'll bring this up in college council.

Action point: Christian to ask about Music Rep in college council.

FRESHERS WEEK

Mary: Applications are now open, as you will have seen we are trying to improve the sense of college continuity regarding the position; particularly in how we pass on college values. Prof thought this could be solved if the Freps had a bigger role after freshers week. There will be a motion in the next JCR meeting about this.

Christian: So basically academic parents but in a college setting.

Daniel: What are we planning to do to pass on these values?

Mary: We will have to come up with some ideas, perhaps a longer engagement period, events?

Nat: Might be nice to have something for refreshers week.

Durk: You'll need to start senior Frep application earlier.

General discussion about refreshers week

DURHAM MARROW

Abby: Are people okay with Durham Marrow (a student run charity that encourages people to become bone marrow donors) during meal times this week?

All agree

UPPER JCR STOCKING

Abby: I only need about £200 of the somewhat larger budget to stock the upper JCR. What are we going to do about stealing?

Daniel: Just get cheapish stuff and have a buffer? People will hopefully bring stuff back anyway.

Christian: Also, can we get the TV on timers please?

Discussion about moving PS4

Action point: Abby to move PS4 and send email about JCR cleanliness.

CHARGING STATIONS

Abby: The porters don't want to be in charge of the keys, could we have the keys behind the bar maybe?

Grover: I'm not opposed to that.

All agree to put charging station keys behind the bar

MONEY REPORT

Money report read out in Alistair's absence

ACTION POINTS

Abby: to move PS4 and send email about Upper JCR cleanliness.

Christian: To ask about Music Rep in college council.

Daniel: To ask the Tier 2 Facebook group for publicity requests (and continue asking on Slack).
