1. Preamble

While the items listed within these job descriptions are intended to form the binding core of an officer's role, they are by no means to be considered exhaustive. It is with this in mind that the following specific provisions are made:

1. That certain circumstances may mitigate the necessity to fulfil the full requirements of a role;
2. That, where there is no conflict of interest with that of the JCR, all officers shall be bound to accept the mandate of the Durham Students' Union to undertake such actions as are required and to attend all meetings at which their presence is expected;
3. That each officer shall agree with their successor a timetable for the handover of skills and responsibilities as to best serve the purposes of the JCR;
4. That each officer shall leave contact details for their successor at the end of their term of office;
5. All holders of a Tier 1 or Tier 2 position, and members of JCR Committee and Steering Committee shall attend all JCR meetings or submit sufficient apologies to the Chair by the publicised deadline.

Where an Officer intends to act outside the specific provisions of autonomy detailed in their Job Description or any other part of the Constitution, Standing Orders or Job Descriptions, it should be considered necessary to take the issue to be put before a JCR meeting.
