INDIVIDUAL REPORTS

Christian: I'm planning to get a sport honours board outside the JCR Office for the winners of the Dyffrig Williams Award; it is the only JCR award so it seems a fitting place for it. The funding for it has already been approved by Special Projects Committee.

Laura: Academic parenting is going well!

Becki: The Buttery is clean.

Mary: I'm having a Presidential drop-in today, I may be having lunch with Owen Adams - I'll feedback soon.

Abby: I'll be seeing Bill about the primary school outreach project.

Alistair: We did well selling the platinum pass and JCR dues!

Saška: Explains the Social Calendar

Jack: The JCR Meeting went well, nominations for committees and Services Officer are now open.

FRESHERS WEEK REVIEW

Grover: In terms of this fresher week I do think more sleep breaks should have been offered.

Becki: Generally this year was much better in terms of breaks though.

Laura: The first night of clubbing was really bad because of freshers splitting into different clubs.

Mary: We just need to be more strict on it all.

Laura: The freshers were very appreciative of our work this year which is great.

JCR DUES

Alistair: I've got an email coming out, I'll keep you all updated on lists. Until we've got a higher number we have to stay on top of those who have not paid their dues to be fair to those who have.

HALLOWEEN

Saška: Jeremy doesn't quite like the idea of day of the dead. I wondered did you think people might want a Halloween night?

Laura: If you want to then yes, but you might find that people will go out anyway.

Christian: Most people go into town on Halloween, especially as it is on a Wednesday this year.

DIWALI FORMAL

Saška: Jeremy wanted to put Diwali formal day the same time as returners formal.

General discussion before deciding not to have these on the same day

VENDING MACHINE

Becki: I don't know what's happening with the vending machine.

Mary: I sent you everything I have on it.

Alistair: We have about £3,000 for it.

Becki: I'll see what I can do!

PS4

Abby: The PS4 has been stolen again. This time I'm looking into socket locks from the upper JCR budget.

Mary: We can say that if it doesn't turn up we will be calling the police.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

Grover: Dan Elliot would like to do a Tolver this year.
